

ABOUT THIS ORDO

- I. This liturgical calendar follows the General Roman Calendar (1969) adopted by the Order of Preachers and adapted for use in the Province of England and the Vicariate of St Louis Bertrand, including celebrations proper both to the Order and to the national and diocesan calendars where our priories and houses are erected.
- II. Holy Days of Obligation are indicated on the preceding Sunday.
- III. Certain celebrations (viz. Christmas, Epiphany, Ascension, Pentecost, Nativity of St John the Baptist, Sts Peter and Paul, and Assumption) have proper Vigil Masses in addition to the Mass of the day. These Vigil Masses are intended to be used either before or after First Vespers of the celebration.
- IV. On Saturdays in Ordinary Time when there is no obligatory memorial, an optional memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary is permitted, with its own proper reading at choice, at Mass and the Office of Readings.
- V. The solemnities of the Titular saint and the anniversary of the Dedication of the church may, for pastoral reasons, be transferred to an ordinary Sunday or some other convenient day.
- VI. Memorials which occur between 17 to 31 December inclusive and on weekdays in Lent (but not Ash Wednesday or within Holy Week) may be celebrated in the following reduced manner:
 - i. At the Office of Readings, after the prescribed patristic reading (and its responsory), a proper reading about the saint (with its responsory) and the saint's collect may be added.
 - ii. At Lauds and Vespers, after the concluding prayer, the conclusion may be omitted, and the antiphon and collect of the saint of the day (taken from the proper or common) may be inserted.
 - iii. At Mass the collect of the saint may be used.

TYPOGRAPHY

- I. All celebrations, apart from optional memorials, appear with rank indicated after their title.
- II. Bold capitals indicate a solemnity, or Sunday in any liturgical season. If the celebration is universal, it appears as follows:

THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS, solemnity

If the celebration is peculiar to a particular local calendar, it appears in smaller type.

- III. Capitals, not bold indicate a feast which, if it is universal, appears as follows:

ST ANDREW, APOSTLE, feast

If the celebration is peculiar to a particular local calendar, it appears in smaller type.

- IV. Bold, not capitals indicate a weekday in any liturgical season, or obligatory memorials. If the celebration is universal, it appears as follows:

St Lucy, virgin, martyr, memorial

If the celebration is peculiar to a local calendar, it appears in smaller type.

- V. Small italics always indicate optional memorials, and are introduced as such. Liturgical colours are shown in brackets if they differ from the universal colour of the day.

Optional: Our Lady of Guadalupe (W)

Memorials of reduced celebration appear as follows:

Optional: St John of Kenty, priest; as a commemoration

- VI. All Sundays and solemnities, as well as feasts of the Lord are shaded in grey.
- VII. Celebrations, and options from the Dominican proper are indicated by a shield:
- VIII. Impeded feasts and permanently impeded obligatory memorials are noted.
- IX. Readings are given on Sundays, solemnities, and feasts of the Lord, as well as other festal days that have proper readings not yet indicated in the current vernacular lectionaries. Psalms are numbered according to the Neo-Vulgate.

Volume I of The Divine Office is required from First Vespers of the first Sunday of Advent.

LECTIONARY: Sundays, Solemnities & Major Feasts - Cycle B
Weekdays - Year II

Advent has a twofold character: as a time to prepare for the solemnity of Christmas when the Son of God's first coming to us is remembered; as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, the season of Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation. (GNLYC, 39).

During Advent and Christmastide we are asked to pray for these intentions:
Openness to the Word of God; Migrants and Refugees; Expectant Mothers.

The Gloria is not sung on Sundays in Advent.

The playing of the organ or other musical instruments and the decoration of the sanctuary with flowers should be done with due moderation, in keeping with the character of this season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord (GIRM, 305; 313).

The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony.

Daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted (GIRM, 381).

Christmas Eve: During the Day Weekday of Advent

MASS: readings for 24 December, preface of Advent II

OFFICE: of 24 December

Mass in the evening of 24 December must be the Vigil Mass of Christmas, whether celebrated before or after First Vespers of Christmas.

C H R I S T M A S T I D E

Next to the yearly celebrations of the paschal mystery, the Church considers nothing more important than the memorial of Christ's birth and early manifestations (GNLYC, 32).

The season of Christmas runs from First Vespers of Christmas until the Sunday after Epiphany or after 6 January, inclusive.

“The news of the coming of God, which was one day heard in the darkness, had the power to awaken the shepherds and to make the multitude of simple people go in haste to the inn. It attracted the learned so much that they set out on unfamiliar routes. It worried the mighty baffled by the resistance that gentleness and love can oppose to the vain pretensions of power. God came among men and women; and all of a sudden those who thought that they were forgotten by everybody found that they were invited to occupy the first place in the fulfilment of the promise. Those who felt tired of life stood up again, and those who felt crushed by guilt and sin grasped the hand that helped them rise again.

God comes personally to dialogue with his people, and the ‘delicate silence of a gentle breeze’ covers the world and opens the time of hope for a new creation...”

- from the Letter of the Master of the Order, fr. Bruno Cadoré OP for Christmas 2009.

ORDINARY TIME

Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character, thirty-three or thirty-four weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in its fullness. This period is known as Ordinary Time. (GNLYC, 43).

*During Ordinary Time up to Lent, we are asked to pray for these intentions:
Peace on Earth; Christian Unity; The Sick and Those Who Care for Them; Students and Teachers; The Unemployed.*

Volume 2 of The Divine Office is required from Ash Wednesday.

Lent is a preparation for the celebration of Easter. For the Lenten liturgy disposes both catechumens and the faithful to celebrate the paschal mystery: catechumens, through the several stages of Christian initiation; the faithful, through reminders of their own baptism and through penitential practices. (GNLYC, 27).

*During Lent we are asked to pray for these intentions:
Candidates for the Sacraments; Women; The Needy and Hungry of the World; Penitents and Wanderers.*

The Alleluia is always omitted at Mass and Office.

The Gloria and Te Deum is not sung on Sundays in Lent but is retained for feasts and solemnities.

It is not permitted to decorate the sanctuary with flowers, and the organ and other instruments should be silenced, unless they are truly necessary to sustain singing. An exception is made for Lætare Sunday, solemnities, and feasts (GIRM 305, 313).

The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony.

Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted, and the weekdays of Lent take precedence over the memorials of saints, so that they may only be commemorated in the manner described in Art. VI of the 'About this Ordo' section in the Introduction of this volume (GIRM 355a).

In addition to Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, fasting and abstinence are required of members of the Province on one day during Lent, for justice and peace.

Pope's intentions - General: That many young people may hear the call of Christ and follow him in the priesthood and religious life.

Missionary: That the risen Christ may be a sign of certain hope for the men and women of the African continent.

H O L Y W E E K

In Holy Week, the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of the earthly life, beginning with his messianic entry into Jerusalem (DPL, 138).

All feasts and memorials are omitted during Holy Week, although solemnities are transferred to a suitable date after the Easter Octave.

Sacristans may note that on Maundy Thursday the Tabernacle should be empty at the beginning of Mass.

|---|---------------|--|----------------------|
| I | SUN Red | PASSION SUNDAY OF THE LORD (‘Palm Sunday’) BLESSING OF PALMS: as in the Missale Romanum , although chants as found in the Officia Hebdomadæ Sanctæ O.P. (1965) may be used, procession or solemn entrance at main Mass preceded by proper Gospel Mk 11:1-10 or Jn 12:12-16 At other Masses, solemn or simple entrance. If the simple entrance is used, there is no Blessing of Palms with its proper Gospel. MASS: of the Sunday, Passion, Credo , proper preface, and readings Isa 50:4-7; Ps 21:8-9. 17-18a. 19-20. 23-24; Phil 2:6-11 Mk 14:1-15:47 or 15:1-39 (shorter form) For the reading of the Passion, the deacon receives a blessing as usual, but no lights or incense are used. The Passion reading is concluded as usual with ‘The Gospel of the Lord’, but the book is not revered with a kiss. OFFICE: of the Sunday Announce Good Friday: Day of fast and abstinence. Prayers are recommended for the candidates for the sacraments. | Psalter Week 2 |

4 WED WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK
Violet ('Spy Wednesday')

MASS: of the weekday, preface of the Passion II

OFFICE: of the weekday

The memorial of St Isidore is impeded.

5 THU THURSDAY OF HOLY WEEK: During the day
Violet

OFFICE: of the weekday, Christus factus est [by custom]

Masses without a congregation, and other than the Chrism Mass are prohibited unless permitted by the local Ordinary.

The memorial of St Vincent Ferrer is transferred to 5 May.

The newly-blessed oils from the Chrism Mass should be borne with honour to the parish churches. The old oils should be burned or poured into the lamp burning before the Blessed Sacrament.

E A S T E R T R I D U U M

Christ redeemed humankind and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Therefore the Easter Triduum of the passion and resurrection of the Lord is the culmination of the entire liturgical year (GNLYC, 18).

5 THU THURSDAY OF HOLY WEEK: Evening
White ('Maundy Thursday')

MASS: of the Lord's Supper, Gloria (with bells), preface of the Eucharist I, proper Communicantes, Hanc igitur and Qui pridie, and proper readings

Ex 12:1-8. 11-14; Ps 115:12-13. 15-16bc. 17-18; 1 Cor 11:23-26

Jn 13:1-15

From the Gloria this evening, bells are silenced until the Easter Vigil. The Washing of Feet customarily takes place after the Homily, although the Proprium Missarum O.P. also allows for it to be done outside of Mass.

The altars are stripped and crosses removed after the Blessed Sacrament has been taken in procession to the Altar of Repose. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is encouraged; after midnight this should take place without ceremony.

Holy water should be emptied from the stoups, and left empty until after the Easter Vigil.

OFFICE: Vespers is not said by those who attend the Mass of the Lord's Supper; Compline as after II Vespers of Sunday

The Last Supper discourse (Jn 13:31-17:26) may be read in the vernacular at the main community meal, or in place of Compline at the end of the day in common before the reposed Blessed Sacrament.

6 FRI
Red

GOOD FRIDAY

Day of Fasting and Abstinence

LITURGY OF THE LORD'S PASSION: as in the Missal, general intercessions, veneration of the cross, communion rite, and proper readings

Isa 52:13-53:12; Ps 30:2 & 6. 12-13. 15-16. 17 & 25; Heb 4:14-16. 5:7-9

Jn 18:1-19:42

The celebration should not take place before noon or after 9 p.m. The altar should be bare, devoid of cloths, cross, and candlesticks.

Veneration of the cross may take place following the form found in the Officia Hebdomadæ Sanctæ O.P. (1965). Crosses should be unveiled after the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion, and until the Easter Vigil, the cross is venerated with a genuflection on entering and leaving the church.

Communion may be given only in the Liturgy of the Passion, or at any hour to the sick.

In all churches and oratories the Pro Terra Sancta collection should be made: for those pastoral, charitable, educational and social works which the Church supports in the Holy Land, in fraternal solidarity with Christians there.

OFFICE: of the day (with versus litanici etc. at Lauds) Christus factus est; Vespers is not said by those who attend the Mass of the Lord's Supper; Compline as after II Vespers of Sunday

On Good Friday and, if possible, also on Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil, the Easter fast is observed everywhere (GNLYC, 20).

7 SAT

HOLY SATURDAY: During the day

OFFICE: of the day, Christus factus est; Compline as after II Vespers of Sunday, but this is omitted by those who attend the Easter Vigil
The memorial of St John Baptist de La Salle is impeded.

Before the Easter Vigil, communion may be given only as Viaticum. No Mass may be celebrated during the day.

The blessing of the First Food of Easter may be given during the day (see The Book of Blessings).

All sacred images, if they have been veiled, are unveiled before the Vigil begins.

The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one "great Sunday." These above all others are the days for the singing of the Alleluia (GNLYC, 22).

During Eastertide we are asked to pray for these intentions:

New members of the Church; Vocations; The right use of the Media; The Church; Human Work.

The Regina Cæli is substituted for the Angelus.

7 SAT HOLY SATURDAY: EASTER VIGIL White

MASS: service of light, procession, Exsultet, vigil of readings and prayers, Gloria (with bells), rites of initiation or reception, renewal of baptismal promises, preface of Easter I, Easter Communicantes and Hanc igitur

Gen 1:1-2:2 or 1:1. 26-31a (shorter); Ps 103:1-2a. 5-6. 10 & 12. 13-14. 24 & 35c or Ps 32

Gen 22:1-18 or 22:1-2. 9a. 10-13. 15-18 (shorter); Ps 15:5 & 8. 9-10. 11

Ex 14:15-15:1a; followed immediately by canticle, Ex 15:1b-2. 3-4. 5-6. 17-18

Isa 54:5-14; Ps 29:2 & 4. 5-6. 11 & 12a & 13b

Isa 55:1-11; canticle, Isa 12:2-3. 4bcd. 5-6

Bar 3:9-15 & 3:32-4:4; Ps 18:8. 9. 10. 11

Eze 26:16-17a. 18-28; Ps 41:3. 5bcd & Ps 43:3-4 or when there is a baptism,

Isa 12:2-3. 4bcd. 5-6 or Ps 50: 12-13. 14-15. 18-19

Rom 6:3-11; Ps 117:1-2. 16ab-17. 22-23

Mk 16:1-7

At least three Old Testament readings, which must include the Exodus reading, are to be read during the Vigil. The Gospel is proclaimed with incense but without lights.

Cappas are set aside at the Gloria.

The dismissal, with the addition of the double Alleluia is used at the end of the Vigil and throughout the Octave.

All priests who celebrate or concelebrate at the Vigil may celebrate another Mass on Easter Sunday, and may receive a Mass offering for each.

The Paschal Candle remains in the sanctuary, near the altar or the ambo, until Pentecost Sunday inclusive, and is lit at the major hours of the Office as well as at Mass.

The memorial of St Augustine of Canterbury is impeded.

After the liturgies of Pentecost Sunday, the Paschal Candle is removed from the sanctuary to the baptistery.

Prayers are recommended for the Church, and for the Holy Father.

After Compline, Eastertide ends.

“My brethren, during this week we often say these words: ‘They were all filled with the Holy Spirit.’ You know that a full jar can hold no more, but any more that is poured in, once it is filled to the brim, only flows out again. On this account the blessed apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit, because they had previously been emptied of their own spirit... And again we say, ‘Send forth thy Spirit and they shall be created’; which is as if David had said, ‘If by thy grace they shall have emptied themselves of their own will, and feelings, and self-love, they shall be filled with thy Holy Spirit.’”

- Blessed Jordan of Saxony, OP, as recounted in the Vitæ Fratrum, part IV, chapter 31.

ORDINARY TIME

In England: The Bishops' Conference requests that on this day each parish will celebrate a Mass with prayers to commemorate the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

During this Mass, the first reading is replaced by 1 Kings 3:11–14 and the following Prayer for the Queen, is used after the Post Communion Prayer and before the Final Blessing:

✠ O Lord, save Elizabeth, our Queen.

✠ And hear us on the day we call upon you.

✠ O Lord, hear my prayer.

✠ And let my cry come before you.

✠ The Lord be with you.

✠ And with your spirit.

Almighty God, we pray,
that your servant Elizabeth, our Queen, who, by your providence has received the governance of this realm, may continue to grow in every virtue,
that, imbued with your heavenly grace, she may be preserved from all that is harmful and evil and, being blessed with your favour may, with her consort and the royal family, come at last into your presence, through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Pope's intentions - General: That politicians may always act with honesty, integrity, and love for the truth.

Missionary: That Christian communities may have a growing willingness to send missionaries, priests, and lay people, along with concrete resources, to the poorest Churches.

During Ordinary Time (Autumn), i.e. from September to Christ the King, we are asked to pray for these intentions:

The Spread of the Gospel; The Harvest; the Fruits of Human Work, and the Reverent Use of Creation; Justice and Peace in the World; All Victims of War; Young People; Prisoners and their Families.

Pope's intentions - General: That the New Evangelization may progress in the oldest Christian countries.

Missionary: That the celebration of World Mission Day may result in a renewed commitment to evangelization.

In this month of the Most Holy Rosary, this devotion, long associated with our holy father Dominic and the Order, should be recommended to the faithful, and its nature and importance explained.

“Dominic looked to that simple way of praying and beseeching God, accessible to all and wholly pious, which is called the Rosary, or Psalter of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in which the same most Blessed Virgin is venerated by the angelic greeting repeated one hundred and fifty times, that is, according to the number of the Davidic Psalter, and by the Lord’s Prayer with each decade. Interposed with these prayers are certain meditations showing forth the entire life of Our Lord Jesus Christ... This same method St. Dominic propagated, and it was, spread by the Friars of Blessed Dominic, namely, of the aforementioned Order, and accepted by not a few of the people. Christ’s faithful, inflamed by these prayers, began immediately to be changed into new men. The darkness of heresy began to be dispelled, and the light of the Catholic Faith to be revealed. ”

- Pope Saint Pius V, in the papal Bull, ‘Consueverunt Romani Pontifices’

DECEMBER 2012

Pope's intentions - General: That migrants throughout the world may be welcomed with generosity and authentic love, especially by Christian communities.

Missionary: That Christ may reveal himself to all humanity with the light that shines forth from Bethlehem and is reflected in the face of his Church.
